Dear Mr. Schlesinger:

Recently we of the American Federation of Police bestowed our Annual Patriot Award to General Mark W. Clark of World War II fame. He has certainly earned a prominent place in world history for which the free nations of the western world can all take pride. Letters and telegrams of congratulations have been received worldwide to this great soldier and Elder Statesman, which are now being compiled into a historical documented book. This book will be presented to the General at a later date and he in turn is going to present it to The Citadel, S.C. Military College, where it will then be placed into the archives for posterity.

Certainly this book would not be complete without your letter of congratulations added in it and your letter is certainly needed at this time to assure this book as well as future generations its historical significance.

Xerox copies regarding this is herewith enclosed along with this letter. May we have the privilege of hearing from you as soon as possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

DCI

George du Mas, Nat'l Dir. Public Affairs
